“We felt that it would be a good place to showcase some of our younger artists who we hadn’t been focusing on at the convention center,” said Leslie Tonkonow of New York’s Leslie Tonkonow Artworks + Projects, who is jumping over this December after six years exhibiting at Art Basel in Miami Beach.

The fair’s highlights will include special artist projects, such as a surfboard stand from Rirkrit Tiravanija and Tomas Vu, as well as nonprofit booths from the likes of ICA Miami and the Aperture Foundation.
