Paris Photo, the leading international fair dedicated to photography, will bring together 149 galleries and 31 publishers from 31 countries around the world for its 21st edition in 2017 from November 9-12 at Paris's historic Grand Palais, including 31 new galleries and five specialist photography publishers exhibiting for the first time.

The solo shows in this year's main sector galleries will feature artists such as Vanessa Beecroft, Ilse Bing, Marcelo Brodsky, Paul Graham, Rinko Kawauchi, Dana Lixenberg, Edgar Martins, Susan Meiselas, Boris Mikhailov, Arnold Odermatt, Shigeru Onishi, Sigmar Polke, Denis Rouvre, Lise Sarfati, Karl Hugo Schmölz, Ed van der Elksen, Tom Wood, Masao Yamamoto, and Tobias Zielony, to name a few.

One of the highlights of Paris Photo 2017 will be the launch of a new FILM/VIDEO section in association with leading cinema, MK2 (Grand Palais). Dedicated to exploring new perspectives in image-based art, the inaugural FILM/VIDEO section program will consist of three daily screenings, one of which will feature artists' films presented by galleries participating in Paris Photo.

Returning for its third consecutive year, the PRISMES sector for serial artworks, large formats, and installation and performance projects will present 14 original creations by the likes of Henry Chalfant, Jungjin Lee, Tim Rautert, Peter Miller, Gilles Caron, Karlheinz Weinberger, Greg Crawford, Aurélie Petrel, and Juergen Teller, among others.

The guest of honor for the 21st edition of Paris Photo is none other than Karl Lagerfeld who will create a journey of his favourite artworks at the fair titled “Paris Photo by Karl Lagerfeld.” His selection will be published in a special edition book. “Today photography is part of my life. It completes the circle between my artistic and professional restlessness,” Karl Lagerfeld has said.
